A Visit to the Indian Meteorological Observatory, Kolkata: A Brief Report & Its Outcome

Type of Event:	One Day Excursion
Conducting Department:	Geography
Venue:	Indian Meteorological Observatory, Alipur
Date:	6 th February, 2024
Duration:	10:00 am to 5:00 pm

Brief Report: A one-day excursion to the Indian Meteorological Observatory at Alipur has been organized by the Department of Geography. Eleven students from Semester I, representing this department, actively participated in the event. Mrs. Mun Mun Nandy, Dr. Amrita Chawdhury and Mrs. Debi Bhattacharya from the Department of Geography, served as mentor faculty and actively engaged in the program.

The students have visited the observatory with different types of instruments like Stevenson Screen, Rain Gauge Meter, Sunshine recorder etc. They have met and attended the lecture session delivered by the Meteorologists.

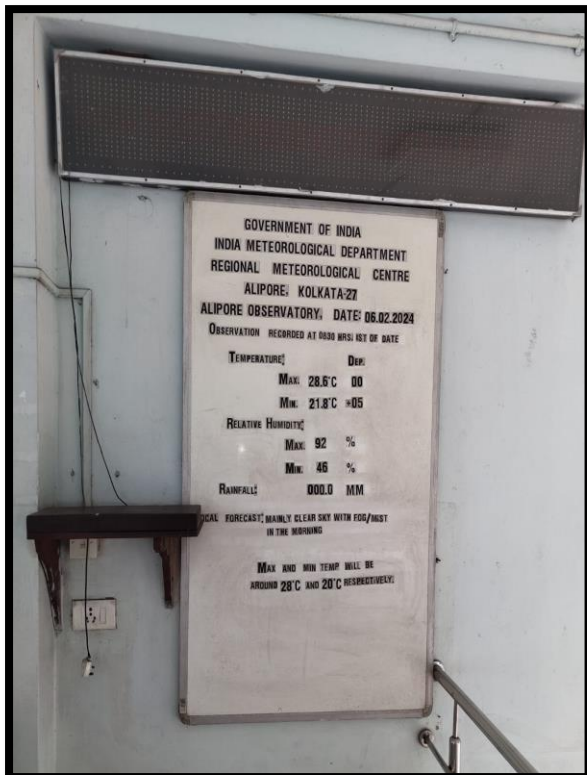

Outcome: Under the guidance of their teachers, students gained firsthand experience in weather forecasting, moving beyond what they had seen on television or read in books. They also learned practical techniques for measuring factors such as Relative Humidity and rainfall volume. Interacting with esteemed meteorologists inspired students to embrace greater challenges in their academic and professional lives.
